4. Develop solutions for managing risk.
5. Interrelate the concepts of risk management and law in limiting exposure to legal liability through case law examples.

Attendance

Attendance is important. The student's success in this class will be dependent upon their participation and the amount and quality of effort expended. Students will be held responsible for material covered in class. Absences can be costly. Roll will be taken. Students engaged in officially sanctioned University of Florida activities are encouraged to provide this information to the instructor during the first week of classes.

Students are allowed two unexcused class absences. If you have more than two unexcused class absences and require support for consideration of an Extenuating Circumstance, including family emergencies or other matters of a very serious nature, you must contact the UF Dean of Students, UMatter Care Team at <https://care.dso.ufl.edu/instructor-notification/> and request an Instructor Notification. This is to be done prior to contacting the professor about the absence. Students with more than two unexcused class absences will be penalized 5% of the final grade. The unexcused absence policy does not apply during the drop/add period. See also UF Regulations and Policies Attendance: <http://regulations.ufl.edu/>

Recording: House Bill 233 Intellectual and Viewpoint Diversity Act was signed into law and is effective as of July 1, 2021. Students are allowed to record video or audio of class lectures. However, classroom exceptions and purposes for which these recordings may be used are strictly controlled. Please see House Bill 233/Section 1004.097 Florida Statutes.

Lids Down/Text Messaging and Cell Phone Policy

Laptops are not permitted to be use in class. Text messaging, cell phones and other forms of cyber communications are not to be used in class and must be turned off prior to class and during exams. TEXT MESSAGING WILL NOT BE ALLOWED IN CLASS! TEXT MESSAGING IN CLASS WILL COUNT AS AN UNEXCUSED ABSENCE.

Exams There are no make-up exams. If an exam is missed, the following exam will count as two exams. This does not apply to the last exam. The last exam must be taken. Students will be graded on the exams taken. Exception will be granted with proper documentation from the Disability Resource Center.

Exam 1	September 28
Exam 2	November 2
Exam 3	December 5

Assignments

There are three (3) written assignments each worth 8.33% of the student's grade. Assignments are graded as Pass/Fail. Assignments are to be submitted following the class presentations. Students will be randomly called on to present their assignment write ups. IMPORTANT: Assignments are graded Pass (P), Pass negative (P-) and Fail (F). Assignments are to consist of a full page of typed text - double-spaced/12point font with 1 - inch margins. An example of an acceptable assignment is located in the course packet. If an assignment is submitted that does not meet the template requirements noted in these course materials, that assignment will either receive the grade of P- or F. Assignments submitted late will automatically be penalized 2% prior to grading. A faulty printer for delay of assignment turn in is not a valid excuse. No excuses.

Final Grade: The final grade will be calculated as follows:

Grading

Exam 1	25 %
Exam 2	25 %
Exam 3	25 %

To assist you in maintaining your own records, a record-keeping form has been included at the end of this course material packet.
