Tel: 352-294-7672
Email: zfgao@ufl.edu

Location and Class Hours:
Tuesday: 3:00 - 3:50 pm MCCB 1108
 4:05 - 4:55 pm MCCB 1108
Thursday: 4:05 - 4:55 pm MCCB 1108

Office Hours: Tuesday and Thursday, 2:00-3:00 pm, or by appointment

Course Description:

This is the second course in a sequence of graduate microeconomic theory. This course will focus on the advanced topics in microeconomic theory in light of contemporary thought. Attention will be given to general equilibrium theory and applications, welfare economics, and economics of choice under uncertainty.

Objective:

By taking this class, students should be able to

1. Understand the basic concepts in general equilibrium analysis, welfare economics, and economics of choice under uncertainty.
2. Apply the theory, and set up models for economic problems to conduct comparative static analysis.
3. Interpret the results from various economic models.

Prerequisites:

Knowledge of graduate microeconomics theory I (ECO 7115) is required. Abilities to use techniques of mathematical optimization and the method of comparative statics are required.

Homework and Grading:

Homework will be assigned across the whole semester. All assignments are due at the beginning of class on the due date. There will be two exams: one midterm and one final.

The weight for homework and exams are:

Homework	20%
Midterm Exam	30%
Presentation	10%
Final Exam	40% (not comprehensive)

No extra credit works are available.

The grade is based on the weighted average of homework and exams.

Course Grade	Letter Grade	Grade Point
90-100	A	4
87-89	A-	3.67

84-86	B+	3.33
81-83	B	3
78-80	B-	2.67
75-77	C+	2.33
72-74	C	2
69-71	C-	1.67

The cutoff point for the grade will not increase and may fall after a curve is applied. You are strongly encouraged to form study groups to discuss homework and lecture materials.

Tentative Course Outline

You are expected to read those chapters/papers with asterisks. You are also responsible for material in handouts that will be distributed in class. Some supplemental papers and provided for each topic. Additional reference can be found at the end of each chapter in Silberberg and Suen. Students may read unassigned chapters/papers at their discretion.

(1) General Equilibrium and Welfare Economics

General Equilibrium

- General Equilibrium Methodology
- Linear and Non-linear Models
- Fixed-Coefficient Technology
- The Linear Activity-Analysis Model
- Duality Analysis in General Equilibrium
- The Edgeworth-Boxley Box Diagram
- Contract Curve and Production Possibility Frontier
- The Stolpher-Samuelson Theorems
- The Rybczynski Theorems

- Pure Exchange Model of General Equilibrium
- The Core of an Exchange Economy
- Walrasian Competitive Adjustment Mechanism
- Existence and Stability of Walrasian Equilibria

Attendance Policy: Class attendance is expected. Students should inform the instructor of expected absences. Excessive unexcused absences will result in negative consequences.

Policy On In-Class Cell Phone Use And Text Messaging: Cell phones should be turned off or put on vibrate mode and should not be answered during class periods. Non-emergency, in-class text messaging is not acceptable.

Students Requiring Accommodations

Students with disabilities who experience learning barriers and would like to request academic accommodations should connect with the Disability Resource Center. It is important for students to share their accommodation letters with their instructor and discuss their access needs as early as possible in the semester.

Course Evaluation

Students are expected to provide professional and respectful feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing course evaluations online via GatorEvals. Guidance on how to give feedback in a professional and respectful manner is available at <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/students/>. Students are notified when the evaluation period opens and can complete evaluations through the email they receive from GatorEvals, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via <https://ufl.bluera.com/ufl/>. Summaries of course evaluation results are available to students at <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/public-results/>.

In-Class Recording

Students are allowed to record video or audio of class lectures. However, the purposes for which these recordings may be used are strictly controlled.

The only allowable purposes are: (1) for personal educational use, (2) in connection with a complaint to the University, or (3) as evidence in, or in preparation for, a criminal or civil proceeding. All other purposes are prohibited. Specifically, students may not publish recorded lectures without the written consent of the instructor.

A “class lecture” is an educational presentation intended to inform or teach enrolled students about a particular subject, including any instructor-led discussions that form part of the presentation and delivered by any instructor hired or appointed by the University, or by a guest instructor, as part of a University of Florida course. A class lecture does not include lab sessions, student presentations, clinical presentations such as patient history, academic exercises involving solely student participation, assessments (quizzes, tests, exams), field trips, private conversations between students in the class or between a student and the faculty or lecturer during a class session.

Publication without permission of the instructor is prohibited. To “publish” means to share, transmit, circulate, distribute, or provide access to a recording, regardless of format or medium, to another person (or persons), including but not limited to another student within the same class section. Additionally, a recording, or transcript of a recording, is considered published if it is posted on or uploaded to, in whole or in part, any media platform, including but not limited to social media, book, magazine, newspaper, leaflet, or third party note/tutoring services. A student who publishes a recording without written consent may be subject to a civil cause of action instituted by a person injured by the publication and/or discipline under UF Regulation 4.040 Student Honor Code and Student Conduct Code.

University Honesty Policy

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge: “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.” The Conduct Code specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and possible sanctions. Click here to read the Conduct Code. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor or TAs in this class.

Software Use

All faculty, staff, and students of the University are required and expected to obey the laws and legal agreements governing software use. Failure to do so can lead to monetary damages and/or criminal penalties for the individual violator. Because such violations are also against University policies and rules, disciplinary action will be taken as appropriate. We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to uphold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity.

Student Privacy

There are federal laws protecting your privacy with regard to grades earned in courses and on individual assignments. For more information, please see the Notification to Students of FERPA Rights.
