Course Objectives

1. Develop an understanding of the basic concepts of common and statutory law.
2. Identify and address current legal issues of importance at the personal and professional level.
3. Develop an understanding of risk.
4. Develop solutions for managing risk.
5. Interrelate the concepts of risk management and law in limiting exposure to legal liability.

Attendance

Attendance is important. The student's success in this class will be dependent upon their participation and the amount and quality of effort expended. Students will be held responsible for material covered in class. Absences can be costly. Roll will be taken. As a courtesy to fellow students and the instructor, students are expected to arrive on time. If the student cannot arrive on time because of extenuating circumstances, the student is strongly encouraged to meet with the instructor during the first week of class. Accommodations will be made for the student. Students engaged in officially sanctioned University of Florida activities are encouraged to provide this information to the instructor during the first week of classes.

Students are allowed two unexcused class absences. This policy does not apply when guest lecturers are scheduled. Students with more than two unexcused class absences will be penalized 5% of the final grade. Students with more than one late arrival will be penalized 2% of the final grade. Attendance and on-time arrival will account for 5% of the final grade.

Lids Down/Text Messaging and Cell Phone Policy

Laptops are not permitted to be used in class. Text messaging, cell phones and other forms of cyber communication are not to be used in class and must be turned off prior to class and during exams. TEXT MESSAGING WILL NOT BE ALLOWED IN CLASS! TEXT MESSAGING IN CLASS WILL COUNT AS AN UNEXCUSED ABSENCE.

Exams

There are no make-up exams.

Make-up exams may be allowed if documentation regarding the missed exam is provided to the instructor. Students are encouraged to inform the instructor of an absence before the exam. Documentation may be provided later. A make-up date and location will be scheduled as soon as possible.

Exam 1 September 22
Exam 2 October 27
Exam 3 December 6

Assignments

There are five (5) written assignments each worth 1.5% of the student's grade. Assignments are graded as Pass/Fail. Assignments are to be turned in following class discussions on the date they are due. Assignments are to consist of a full page of typed text - double-spaced/12point font with 1 - inch margins. If a full page is not submitted, the student will be penalized 1% of the assignment. Late assignments will be penalized 1%.

Final Grade

The final grade will be calculated as follows:

Grading

Exam 1	29.1%
Exam 2	29.1%
Exam 3	29.3%
Assignments	7.5%
Attendance, On Time Arrival	5.0%

To assist you in maintaining your own records, a record-keeping form has been included at the end of this course material packet.

Academic Honesty

Each of you signed an agreement to adhere to the academic honesty guidelines when you were admitted to the University of Florida. To refresh your recollection, a copy of UF guidelines is attached with an accompanying form for your signature.

Disability Clause

Students requesting classroom accommodations must first register with the UF Disability Resource Center (www.DSO.UFL.EDU/DRC/) 352-392-8565. The DRC will provide documentation to the student who must then provide the DRC documentation to the instructor requesting special accommodations.

Online Course Evaluation: <https://evaluations.ufl.edu> are open during the last two or three weeks of the semester. Results are available: <https://evaluations.ufl.edu/results/> Students are encouraged to provide feedback on the quality of instruction.

The Commitment to Academic

Honesty

"On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment."

Acts of Academic Dishonesty

I. Cheating:

The improper taking or tendering of any information or material which shall be used to determine academic credit. Taking of information includes, but is not limited to, copying graded homework assignments from another student; working together with another individual(s) on a take-home test or homework when not specifically permitted by the teacher; looking or attempting to look at another student's paper during an examination; looking or attempting to look at text or notes during an examination when not permitted. Tendering of information includes, but is not limited to, giving your homework to another student to be used or copied; giving someone answers to exam questions either when the exam is being given or after taking an exam; giving or selling a term paper or other written materials to another student; sharing information on a graded assignment.

II. Plagiarism:

The attempt to represent the work of another as the product of one's own thought, whether the other's work is published or unpublished, or simply the work of a fellow student. Plagiarism includes, but is not limited to, quoting oral or written materials without citation on an exam, term paper, homework, other written materials or oral presentations for an academic requirement; submitting a paper which was purchased from a term paper service as your own work; submitting anyone else's paper as your own work.

III. Bribery:

The offering, giving, receiving or soliciting of any materials, items or services of value to gain academic advantage for yourself or another.

IV. Misrepresentation:

Any act or omission with intent to deceive a teacher for academic advantage. Misrepresentation includes using computer programs generated by another and handing it in as your own work unless expressly allowed by the teacher; lying to a teacher to increase your grade; lying or misrepresenting facts when confronted with an allegation of academic dishonesty.

V. Conspiracy:

The planning or acting with one or more persons to commit any form of academic dishonesty to gain academic advantage for yourself or another.

VI. Fabrication:

The use of invented or fabricated information, or the falsification of research or other findings with the intent to deceive for academic or professional advantage.

I have read and understand the provisions of the course syllabus and agree to abide by those provisions, including the University of Florida's honor code.

Academic Honesty

As a result of completing the registration form at the University of Florida, every student has signed the following statement: "On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment."

Software Use

All faculty, staff and students of the University are required and expected to obey the laws and legal agreements governing software use. Failure to do so can lead to monetary damages and/or criminal penalties for the individual violator. Because such violations are also against University policies and rules, disciplinary action will be taken as appropriate.

We, the members of the University of Florida, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity.
