FLORIDA CITRUS
Contributing $6.53 billion in industry output to Florida’s economy

SEMI-TRUCKS LOADED WITH CITRUS AND PARKED END-TO-END COULD STRETCH FROM MIAMI TO PANAMA CITY!

71.4 MILLION BOXES

Packed Citrus
9,181,000 CARTONS

CARTONS WOULD COVER A BASKETBALL COURT AND STACK OVER 2,000 FEET HIGH!

Citrus Juice
658 MILLION GALLONS

VOLUME OF JUICE WOULD FILL THE LARGEST TANK AT THE FLORIDA AQUARIUM (the Coral Reef Community tank) 1,315 TIMES!

Citrus Byproducts
677,891 TONS

WEIGH AS MUCH AS 1,300 FALCON 9 ROCKETS

Oranges

Grapefruit
990,000 THOUSAND BOXES

Tangerines and Tangelos

4.5 MILLION BOXES

PRODUCED FOR

UF/IFAS ECONOMIC IMPACT ANALYSIS PROGRAM
fred.ifas.ufl.edu/economicimpactanalysis

CITATION

But it doesn’t stop there.
Citrus activities also generate additional activity throughout Florida’s economy, namely indirect and induced effects.

TOTAL INDUSTRY OUTPUT
$3.93 billion
citrus growers, processors, and packinghouses

EMPLOYMENT
19,298 jobs
(fulltime and part-time)

LABOR INCOME
$740 million
in income for Florida families

Florida State & Local Tax Contributions
$139 MILLION DOLLARS
in state and local taxes that fund public services

Citrus Industry DIRECT CONTRIBUTIONS

Industry Output
60%
$6.53 billion

Employment
52%
37,431 jobs

Labor Income
46%
$1.60 billion

Value Added
49%
$2.72 billion

For every $1 of direct output from the citrus industry, a total of $1.66 of output is generated throughout Florida's economy.

For every 1 job (direct) in the citrus industry, 2 jobs are supported throughout Florida's economy.

Florida State & Local Tax Contributions
$139 MILLION DOLLARS
in state and local taxes that fund public services